BOSTON INTERNATIONAL ANTIQUARIAN BOOK FAIR CELEBRATES 40TH ANNIVERSARY
at the
HYNES CONVENTION CENTER, OCTOBER 28-30, 2016

American and international book dealers, collectors and the intellectually curious celebrate the printed word

BOSTON, MA – The annual fall gathering for booklovers, the Boston International Antiquarian Book Fair, will return to the Hynes Convention Center in Boston’s beautiful Back Bay, October 28-30, 2016. More than 120 dealers from the United States, England, France, Germany, Netherlands, Spain, Russia, Denmark and Australia will exhibit and sell a vast selection of rare, collectible and antiquarian books, illuminated manuscripts, autographs, maps, atlases, modern first editions, photographs, and fine and decorative prints.

One of the oldest and most respected antiquarian book shows in the country, the Fair celebrates its 40th Anniversary in 2016! The event offers the ‘crème de la crème’ of items that are available on the international literary market. Whether just browsing or buying, there’s something for every taste and budget—books on art, politics, travel, gastronomy, and science to sport, natural history, literature, music, and children’s books—that will appeal to the serious collector and the curious browser.

The Fair gives visitors the opportunity to see, learn about, and purchase the finest in rare and valuable books and ephemera. For attendees wanting to start a collection without breaking the bank, there will be dealers offering “Discovery” items priced at less than $100.

Seminars and events will be featured throughout the weekend as well as The Annual Ticknor Society Roundtable, a panel discussion of collectors talking about their collections. More events will be announced in early fall, and folks can visit www.bostonbookfair.com for up to the minute details.

Tickets are $20 for Friday night’s exclusive Opening Night preview event, an opportunity for the public to get a first look at items for sale at the Fair. With growing attendance over the past five years, especially among younger audiences, Book Fair organizers have decided to offer free admission on Saturday and Sunday in order to attract a larger audience of book-loving, first-time attendees.
